A MESSAGE FROM THERESE...

For over 20 years, teaching volleyball has been very rewarding - I love working with your children & promise to continue giving them the best camp experience possible. I am surrounded by coaches that are professional and passionate about teaching your children the game while building character. As a parent, I understand the sacrifices you make for your family - camps are a major time & financial commitment. At my camps, I can assure you that your time & money are well spent. I look forward to coaching your children this summer...
